SPLENDID SPIRIT SHOWN AT HAWN. EVANGELICAL MEETING

Convention on Kauai Marked by Participation of Many Races. Topics of Vital Interest to Church Strength Discussed. Attendance Is Large from All Over the Archipelago.

"One of the best meetings in the history of the Evangelical Association," is the verdict of all the many delegates who have been returning from Kauai during the last two or three days. Some who have followed the work of the Hawaiian Board for the last ten years declare that the convention that has closed on Kauai at twelve today the best they had ever known. There was a splendid spirit of cooperation through the many sessions. Furthermore there were an unusually large number of delegates from churches other than Hawaiian and English speaking. For instance, there were 14 Japanese ministers and 3 or 4 delegates representing all of the Japanese churches connected with the Hawaiian Board. Six Chinese ministers and 1 delegate came. The total attendance was unusually large. When the session is in Honolulu many of the delegates fail to attend all the meetings because of the attractions in the city, but at Kauai the number attending each day was very large.

As usual, the early morning prayer meetings were most inspiring. At this early session the singing is always excellent, the speeches short and to the point, and every one is in the spirit of devotion.

The hour from 8 to 9 this year was given to sectional prayer meeting and Bible study. The work was conducted in the various languages, and there was plenty of time to take part. This is somewhat of a departure from the usual program and the innovation was most pleasing. The English section met at the home of Rev. John M. Lydgate and was always lavishly attended by all who speak English. The Hawaiian section met in the Hawaiian church which was always filled. The Japanese and Chinese met by themselves in the Union church. They discussed with great freedom and earnestness the passages assigned for the study.

Many Delegates Present.
In all fully 350 delegates were present each day. On Sunday the numbers were much increased, for the people from all over Lihue came to the big Sunday school rally and to attend the other special services of the day.

On Saturday Manager Weber arranged 20 cars which seated nearly 400 people who went over the various sections of the railroad throughout Grove Farm and Lihue Plantation. The trip began about nine in the morning and lasted until one. It was a most enjoyable outing. Mrs. Dora Isenberg had charge of and arranging that fifty watermelons and eight hundred doughnuts be distributed to the train load of people at the Lihue Mill. The new sections of the Grove Farm, the Waiānae Bridge, the beautiful catches, the wonderful ranges of the sea were all appreciated by those that had never seen Lihue before.

Following this outing, Hon. W. H. Rice with his corps of men served a delicious luau at the church grounds. The afternoon was devoted to sports and tramps and social affairs.

One of the most delightful features of the social side of the convention was the daily lunch for the English speaking delegates at the school cottage. This lunch was in charge of the ladies of the community. They in turn also served tea at four in the afternoon. The delegates were entertained in the charming and hospitable Lihue homes. The large delegation of Hawaiians was housed in army tents practically staked out in the Lihue grove for the occasion. The meals for the delegates were served in the tent behind the church.

The opening session was held in the Union church which was so crowded that people could not find even standing room. Afterwards as long as the weather permitted the services, even those of the evening were held in the square in front of the church, with the tall evergreens for shade. Here it was delightfully cool, and every word could be easily heard in the open air.

Rev. John M. Lydgate gave the opening address in Hawaiian, which was closely listened to and much appreciated by all present. He emphasized the fact that love, unity and patience were the virtues that would make the great convention a success.

Rev. Hans Isenberg followed with a strong address of greeting. He spoke in English and was interpreted by Rev. S. L. Desha. The Lutheran pastor dwelt particularly upon the fact that the calling together of such a large body of people was through a single purpose, namely to spread the Kingdom of God on earth. He said that the plantations were interested in the hospitals, schools, and every means for helping the people who worked for them. But they were also deeply interested in the churches, which dealt with the people not in outward things but in the inward things of the heart. He spoke of the work of the church of which he was pastor had done, and said he was full of hope of what the coming of the convention to Lihue might do for all the people of the community.

Vital Topics Discussed.

At the meetings that followed on other days, the special feature which made the convention such an unusual power this year was the open discussion of great topics of vital interest to the church's strength. These topics were discussed in English, Hawaiian,

Japanese and Chinese, so that all present got something out of what was said. After the several leaders had opened the subject many from the floor took part, so that a vital impression was left upon all the hearers of the greatest themes that could possibly be presented to such an audience. "The rousing of the church to her mission," was discussed Friday morning. "The pre-eminence of Christ," that afternoon. "The witness from Heaven," "The risen end" were other topics.

At the business sessions some important work was attended to. The secretary of the Hawaiian Board, Rev. Wm. B. Oleson read his report in Hawaiian, which was eagerly listened to. Theodore Richards read the summary of the financial work of the year. He reported that the receipts had been over $31,000 and that the balance on hand at the end of the year was some $12,500.

Vacancies Filled.
Vacancies in the Hawaiian Board in the class whose term expires in 1915 were filled as follows: Benjamin D. Bond, William A. Bowen, Rev. H. W. Chamberlain, A. Frank Cooke, Rev. E. L. Desha, J. P. Cooke, W. C. Smith, F. L. Horne, Rev. H. K. Pospo, Rev. D. Scudder, Rev. A. V. Soares, John Waterhouse, P. C. Jones.

Vacancies in class whose term expires in 1913—Paul Super, J. W. Gilmore.
Vacancies in class whose term expires in 1914—S. K. Kamalopili, Rev. Akiko Akana, David Kanuha, Rev. A. A. Ebersole.

Closer Relationship.
A resolution was passed that a special committee of seven, of which the moderator of the association shall be a member, be appointed by the moderator; the said committee to confer with representatives of other religious organizations with a view to closer relationship, provided that seems advisable, and to report to this association, at the next annual meeting.

The other members of the committee appointed by Moderator J. M. Lydgate were as follows: Rev. W. B. Oleson, E. S. Timotes, S. L. Desha, S. H. Oni, J. P. Erdman, William Kahe, Rev. J. B. Oleson was unanimously elected secretary of the Hawaiian Board and Theodore Richards treasurer.

The music of the convention was noteworthy. Judge D. Kapahe led a large part of the singing in the devotional services, and led it well. A quartet consisting of Messrs. Murray, Akana, Richards and Butler led many of the hymns during the early part of the morning sessions of the assembly. Fred Butler did some special work in the devotional sessions by training the people to sing the Hawaiian version of the popular song he has been having them sing in English—"He Will Hold Me Fast." The song was equally popular in Hawaiian, and after the excellent chorus was once learned, everybody enjoyed it.

Other Meetings.
In connection with the annual meeting of the Evangelical Association, the sessions of the Christian Endeavor Association and that of the Sunday school were also held. The sessions were more tedious than the other meetings, because such a large amount of time was consumed by reports. It will be a matter of unusual interest that Rev. Akiko Akana was elected by the endorers as the president of their Territorial association. This is a great honor for so young a man, who has only recently returned from the States, and has only within two months become an ordained minister.

Sunday was a great day with the Sunday school rally in the morning, which was very largely attended by not only the delegates from the convention, but by the Kauai people themselves in very large numbers. The singing was excellent as always at such great gatherings. The work of the Sunday schools was also well done.

The afternoon session at 3 o'clock was devoted to the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, in which several visiting ministers of different races officiated. The sermons were given in Hawaiian by Rev. Stephen L. Desha and in English by Rev. Collins G. Burnham.

The convention next year will be held at Kawaiahae church, Honolulu. Hawaii won the banner offered in competition.
The matters of business left over until the last two days were the hearing of various reports from special and standing committees, the selection of the officers for the next meeting and the appointment of the place for the meeting of 1913.

The success of the Lihue convention is due to the untiring efforts of the people of Kauai, and particularly to the Hawaiian and Union churches of Lihue. All have worked most faithfully to make the 1912 convention a great success.

HITCHCOCK FEARS FOR MAIL SERVICE

Sees Department Paralyzed if Appropriation Bill Is Not Passed

WASHINGTON, June 28.—"If Congress fails to pass the postal appropriation bill before midnight Monday," said Postmaster General Hitchcock, in a statement issued today, "or if proper provision is not made for the continuance of the service the effect will be felt in the whole country."
"The great army of postal employees, 335,000 in all, will have their pay stopped immediately, nor can they continue their service, because this is forbidden by the statute."
